WINTER 2007

Enjoy the Holidays with a Little Help from Our Bakery

Remember, just before the holidays, when the house was filled with the tantalizing aroma of holiday cookies coming from the kitchen? Now you can enjoy these same traditional treats, made by the Terhune Orchards bakers. They regularly transform natural, wholesome ingredients into the best tasting pie-baked pies, crisps, breads, cookies, and pies.

Our traditional Gingerbread Houses made in the Terhune Orchard Bakery are spectacular and delicious. Drizzled with frosting and decorated with piquant gingerbread formed into holiday shapes. Select almond crescents, chocolate crinkles delicately dressed with powdered sugar, thumbprint cookies, shortbread, or Russian tea cookies. All are perfect with a mug of steaming Terhune Orchards Mulled Cider or tea.

Or, try our traditional cookies such as Double Chocolate, Chocolate Chip (with or without nuts), Oatmeal Raisin, Snickerdoodles, Chewy Ginger Cookies, and rich, moist, chocolate brownies. These

Holiday Greetings from the Family

This has been the year of the baby! Daughter Reuwai and son-in-law Mike gave birth to twins in May (on Gary's birthday). That began the saga of change for the Hanewald family. Now with three girls under three, Reu and Mike accepted jobs at the
